

sky

// CHICAGO: 1 CITY 5 WAYS

// TALK SHOW WITH
CYRUS' JONAH HILL

// LIVING LARGE
IN LAS VEGAS

▲ DELTA

The Mad, Mad World of Advertising

Industry hotshots weigh in on creativity, technology and subservient chickens.

+ Mad Men Off the Clock
John Slattery and Christina Hendricks cut loose

JULY 2010

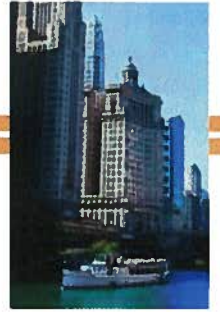

1

Architecture Aficionado

WHERE TO STAY // Hotel Burnham

Housed in the historic Reliance Building, built by architect Daniel Burnham in 1895 as one of the world's first glass-and-steel skyscrapers, the Burnham oozes history. Plus, its location on State Street is stellar. burnhamhotel.com

MORNING // Architecture River Cruise

Take the Chicago Architecture Foundation River Cruise along the Chicago River. You'll see everything from modernist masterpieces to crenelated, sandcastle-like structures from the 1920s. caf.architecture.org/tours

2

Lofty Ambitions

WHERE TO STAY // Trump International Hotel & Tower Chicago

Rising 92 stories along the Chicago River, the Trump offers unparalleled views from its guest rooms, spa and Sixteen, the contemporary American restaurant. trumpchicagohotel.com

MORNING // Willis Tower Skydeck

Let the world unfold below your feet from the Willis Tower Skydeck, the highest observatory in Chicago. On clear days you can see into Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan. theskydeck.com

The Skidmore, Owings & Merrill-designed Trump International Hotel & Tower is the second-tallest building in North America.

3

History Buff

WHERE TO STAY // Palmer House Hilton

Founded in 1871 as magnate Potter Palmer's wedding gift to his wife, the fabled Palmer House shines afresh, thanks to a massive refurbishment. The hotel counts myriad "firsts," from the city's first elevator to the creation of the brownie. hilton.com

MORNING // Chicago History Museum

Wander through wonderful, evocative displays at the Chicago History Museum, which guide visitors through the city's rich history. chicagohs.org

MORNING // Trolley & Double-Decker Bus Tour

Hop on Chicago Trolley's tour, a 90-minute overview of the city's top attractions. Hop off when you land at a site on your to-do list, from the Museum Campus to the Willis Tower. coachusa.com/chicagatrolley

4

For the Kids

WHERE TO STAY // The Peninsula Chicago

This retreat at the center of the Magnificent Mile sits steps from Navy Pier, shopping and museums. The American Girl Place package is just one of the many children's programs offered here. peninsula.com/chicago

WHERE TO STAY // Elysian

Flanked by Bloomingdale's and Barneys New York, this elegant newcomer sits at the apex of the city's top shopping. After hitting the stores, retreat to this true urban retreat. elysianhotels.com

MORNING // Shopping

Sleep in, then grab a late-morning pastry at Sarah's Pastries & Candies and explore the two-block radius surrounding the Elysian for outposts of Luca Luca, Intermix, Chanel, Gucci, Jil Sander, Tory Burch, Hermès and more.

To fuel up for power shopping, nab a chocolate-raspberry brioche from Sarah's.

5

Shopaholic

