

NEWS

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For Further Information Contact: Ken Price, Director of Public Relations Department 312/621-7326

---

PRESIDENTIAL HOPEFUL SENATOR HILLARY CLINTON GETS FIRST HAND INFORMATION ON PALMER HOUSE'S $155 MILLION RESTORATION

(Chicago, IL) - Presidential hopeful Senator Hillary Clinton (D) New York, showed her enthusiasm when hearing of the restoration plans of the historic Palmer House from Sandra Reinert (second from left) Project Vice President, PEPPER CONSTRUCTION. "Great! You should be restoring this hotel," Clinton said. Clinton set aside some time on a recent visit to the venerable Chicago hotel to meet with Reinert and representatives of the hotel's owners, THOR EQUITIES LLC, Debra Fahey (far left) and Elizabeth Hedgcock (far right) to catch up on her hometown's news.

Reinert is overseeing a $155 million restoration and rejuvenation program by PEPPER CONSTRUCTION. The project is considered one of the most comprehensive such initiatives ever undertaken for a hotel.

X X X