400 TUBAS TOOT CHRISTMAS TUNES IS A PALMER HOUSE TRADITION

(Chicago, IL) - TubaChristmas at the Palmer House has become a holiday tradition in Chicago since its inception nearly 30 years ago. Having nearly 400 tubas in the same place at the same time is by itself a highly unique happening.

TubaChristmas is a concert of Christmas music orchestrated solely for the Tuba, created by Indiana music professor Harvey Phillips, known as the "Paganini of the Tuba." This year TubaChristmas will take place on Saturday, December 22, at the Palmer House.
