

Palmer House, a Hilton Hotel is located at the intersection of Chicago's business, entertainment, and theater districts. As North America's longest operating hotel, Palmer House has been at the forefront of hospitality innovation and service for more than 150 years. The first to incorporate modern marvels including the light bulb, vertical steam lift, the telephone, and even the brownie. Following a recent $7 million renovation, Palmer House is once again at the vanguard of cutting-edge, and guests can now enjoy upgrades to event spaces, a new indoor pool, and the convenience of Lockwood Express, a gourmet grab-and-go dining option.
